Full Article

WEST PALM BEACH, FL / ACCESS Newswire / June 22, 2026 / ELEKTROS Inc. (OTC Pink:ELEK), publicly traded under ticker symbol ELEK, today expressed its appreciation to shareholders, supporters, and investors worldwide as growing awareness continues to highlight the Company's long-term vision involving hard rock lithium mining and patented electric vehicle charging technology.

As gasoline prices remain elevated in many regions of the world, many consumers continue exploring electric vehicle alternatives to help reduce transportation costs. Industry-wide demand for electric vehicles, battery materials, lithium resources, and charging infrastructure continues to expand globally.

Management believes the growing importance of lithium, a key component in most modern electric vehicle batteries. continues
